Task 3 Questions 11-15

Read about Ann Morris. For questions 11-15, complete the form with one or two words. Write your answer only here in this exam booklet. There is an example at the beginning (0).

An interview with Ann Morris

You know her from cosmetic commercials on TV. The beautiful girl who worked for Revlon and Pepsi now has a successful new career.

I talked to Ann Morris on a hot afternoon in Miami on the set of her latest movie. She plays a lawyer in great danger. "Today I'm a moving target running away from my killers!"

Ann is from Oregon, where she also went to university. "I was always good at maths and history, but I preferred playing with numbers. So after high school, I decided to study economics. At first I thought I might work for my father back home. We have a ranch. I just love spending time outdoors. Even now, I use every minute of my free time to go hiking."

Ann's first job wasn't planned. "I was at university when a pair of talent scouts came and said they were looking for interesting faces. I thought I wasn't tall enough or thin enough, but they said I was perfect."

Then I asked her why she gave up modelling. "Well, I didn't plan to. It was good money for a young girl and I travelled a lot. I never really thought I'd become an actress. But, when director Bob Newton asked me to star in his first film Running for Life, I couldn't think of a reason to say no. And now I'm really happy. This is my 5th movie. My work is so much more exciting now."
